In a nod to its appearance in F. Scott Fitzgerald's "The Great Gatsby," the Seelbach Hilton Hotel has opened a new casual restaurant — Gatsby's on Fourth.

The restaurant, in the space previously known as Otto's Café on the hotel's first floor, comes as part of a multi-million dollar renovation at the historic 321-room hotel at Fourth Street and Muhammad Ali Boulevard.

Gatsby's on Fourth will serve breakfast, lunch, dinner and room service, offering a menu that features traditional American classics. The restaurant opens directly onto the Seelbach's main lobby.

Built in 1905, the Seelbach was the setting for Tom and Daisy Buchanan's wedding in "The Great Gatsby."

Gatsby's will be open Monday through Friday from 6:30 a.m. – 11 p.m. and on Saturday and Sunday from 7 a.m. – 11 p.m.
